A. Resolutions

Hudley – Frederic 1. Resolution of Sorrow – Irvington Police Officer Tawine Kirkland

RESOLUTION OF SORROW
TAWINE KIRKLAND

WHEREAS, if a man's life can be measured by the magnitude of love and admiration held for him by his family and friends, then Tawine "T-Smooth" Kirkland, lived his life in an immeasurable way. A cherished husband, father, son, brother, uncle, cousin, friend and colleague, Tawine touched the hearts and spirits of everyone he came in contact with.

Blessed with a brilliant presence and an amazing sense of humor, Tawine brought light and laughter to any room he entered. He shared his talents, love and support with his family and friends freely, and unforgettably.

WHEREAS, on February 18, 2016 God decided that it was time for his son and our protector, to come home. Although Tawine's time with us had to end, the imprint he left on our hearts and minds will live forever. Not a day will go by that we will not miss you T-Smooth, more than words could ever express. This is the life journey of one of the greatest men we know, Tawine Kirkland.

WHEREAS, Tawine was born on December 2, 1971 in Newark, NJ to the late James and Clara Kirkland. He was the youngest of seven sisters and brothers; Belinda, Carey, James Jr., Essie, Ronald, Michelle and Dody. His brothers and sisters loved him dearly and he enjoyed his status as the baby of the crew. They looked after, adored and protected him. Growing up, Tawine was a sweet and respectable kid. His brother Dody was his partner, and they spent their days hanging out with their childhood best friends Junior, Eric and Vincent.

WHEREAS, from early on, Tawine was a "cool kid", who sported the latest high top haircut and kept the crowd going with his quick wit. While a student at Barringer High School, he was introduced to speech and debate by his teacher, Antoinette Baskerville Richardson, and from there his talents blossomed. Tawine won numerous awards and traveled the United States with the debate team. It didn't take long for him to discover that he had a natural way with words and the ability to keep people entertained. He graduated from Barringer High School in 1990.

WHEREAS, after high school, Tawine began to pursue his first love, rap. With his oratory skills and gift for poetry he dubbed himself "T-Smooth" and formed the group BWC, Brothers Who Chill. Tawine even recorded a demo. His passion for lyrics, poetry and freestyle stayed with him, and would find its way into gatherings of family and friends. Tawine never turned down a chance to make people smile.

WHEREAS, in 1996 Tawine met the love of his life, Caroline. Caroline and Tawine became a couple one year later, and the two of them were inseparable. Not only did Caroline give Tawine unconditional love and support, she also gave him the gift of fatherhood. He was introduced to her two children, Sidney and Ebony, and immediately took on the responsibility of helping to raise them. He proposed to Caroline on Christmas Day in 1999 and the two of them were married on February 15th, 2002. His wife and children were his world, and he was immensely proud of their accomplishments.

WHEREAS, Tawine was always a hard worker. After high school he gained employment as a security guard, and then as a TSA agent. For many years he worked as an Essex County Correctional Officer. But on September 27, 2007 he achieved one of his long term goals- he graduated from the police academy and became an Irvington Police Officer. Officer Kirk enjoyed his work, and his colleagues loved his big personality.

WHEREAS, working as a police officer was his job, but Tawine's "office" could be found at another spot in Irvington, Marlo's, owned by his good friend, Rufus. That's where you could often catch up with T-Smooth telling jokes, handing out advice and hanging with his best friends. People gravitated towards Tawine; he made everyone feel warm and protected. It was the same for his sisters, brothers, cousins, nieces and nephews; everyone looked forward to being in his presence.

WHEREAS, Tawine would often say, “If you see me running, it’s because I am chasing my dreams”. He spent the last couple of years doing just that, and perfecting his craft. He launched a YouTube channel and internet radio show, named after his childhood group, BWC. His videos and crazy skits on Facebook were hilarious; just one more way to get a dose of Tawine to cheer up your day. On his shows, he always took the time to give thanks to God, who was the “center of his joy” and visited different churches whenever he needed to feel more connected.

WHEREAS, sadly and tragically, Tawine passed away on February 18, 2016, just a few weeks after the loss of his beloved mother. Our hearts are comforted by the memories we shared and the lives he touched.

WHEREAS, Tawine leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife Caroline; son Sidney G. Cain; daughter and princess Ebony Mason; future son in law, Johnathan; siblings Belinda Berryman (Herman), Essie Williams, Ronald, Michelle and Dody Kirkland; sister in law Denise Cain; two brothers in law Michael Cain Sr. and John Wesley Cain; honorary brother James Daniels II; honorary sister Veronica (insert); mother in law Willier Mae White; father in law Carl Lee Jones; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and dear friends. He is preceded in death by his mother, Clara Kirkland; his father, James Kirkland, and two brothers, Carey Kirkland and James Kirkland Jr.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Township of Irvington that the Township of Irvington hereby mourns the loss Twaine Kirkland and offers its sincerest condolences to his family and friends during this period of bereavement; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of this governing body as a lasting tribute to Twaine Kirkland.
