2. N.J. Department of Transportation – Discussion on Road Detour Plans in Irvington

Mr. Staley Chen, consultant for the N.J. Department of Transportation, began to brief the Council of the road detour plan in Irvington on Paine Avenue and Lyons Avenue as a result of work to be done on a railroad lines traversing the Township. Some discussion ensued wherein Mayor Vauss indicated that the discussion was premature at this point and should include representatives from the N.J. Department of Transportation and the contractor who will be performing the work. Engineer Wiggins indicated that the Township of Hillside and the County of Essex should be informed of the project since it would involve roads under their jurisdiction.

No members of the general public participated in thus virtual meeting.

At this point, at 10:11 AM, Council Members Vick and Hudley left the meeting and, there being no quorum, he meeting was immediately adjourned.

No members of the general public participated in this virtual meeting.
